THAT NEW ORLEANS PATH.

Writing from New Orleans to Daily America, Charles E. Trevathan has this to say of a formidable factor in deciding the results of races at the Crescent City track:

"It is more than ordinarily amusing to watch this game in the southern city. There are so many things about it that are unique and individual. You must know that the track received last summer a new top dressing of a soil that was supposed to be just the proper thing for wet weather. It is just the thing to make bricks without straw and to hold a horse about as hard as a strong-arm quarter rider of half a century ago could hold a dead one in a match.

"The new soil is as full of spots as a smallpox patient and quite as unhealthy from a racing point of view. On the extreme outside there runs the famous path of which so much has been heard since the present meeting opened. The possession of that path means ten, yes, twenty pounds the best of the race, and the scramble for it makes one think of the pictures in Harper's of the American soldiers rushing for the walls of Peking.

"All sorts of tactics are resorted to by the jockeys to get to the outside at the post, and the hardest task Starter Fitzgerald has is to keep the lads in positions which belong to them.

"You will see a number 'three' edging away out alongside a number 'nine.' The lad who draws number 'one,' next to the rail, is full of grief and vain endeavor. He is all in before the webbing flies. As is the eastern custom, the numbers on the blankets correspond to the positions of the horses at the post from the rail outward.

"When the usual quota of rain has fallen and the track is particularly bad, the shrewd bettors simply fold the racing card in half and cut out of their calculations all horses whose names appear on the first half of the program. Only the bottom animals, with numbers running from six upward, are worth consideration. They have the outside positions at the post and will get away. The one to take the path will be in that lot, and the 'dope' is framed to select that one.

"Funny way of picking winners, but the fact that the majority of books doing business here are on the wrong side suggests that for the poor suffering player and payer the plan is not such a bad one. It is at least unique in racing history, this condition of playing to the outside horse, when all

Winner—B. or br. f, by Ben Brush—Atala (trained by S. W. Streett).
Went to post at 4:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Lindsey rode a good race on Brush By. He was outrun for the first half, but worked his way up on the outside while rounding the far turn, caught Sheriff Bell at the furlong post and outstayed him in a drive to the wire. Sheriff Bell was well ridden and did his best and had no mishaps. Melbourne Eclipse finished fast and was on the extreme outside all the way. This horse is improving. The route was seemingly too far for Henry McDaniel. He showed early speed, but tired and quit in the stretch.
Scratched—37099 Shogun, 97; 37081 Fading Light, 95.
Overweights—Brush By, 2 pounds; Henry McDaniel, 1; Burke Cochran, 3; Breaker, 1; Guess, 4.

Winner—Ch. c, by Lamplighter—Little Indian (trained by H. McDaniel).
Went to post at 4:38. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily up; second the same. Little Scout was under restraint for the first half, caught Rough Rider while rounding the far turn and came away without great effort in the last furlong. Rough Rider showed the most early speed and ran a good race, but tired at the end. Commissioner Forster ran well for a half, but tired thereafter as if short. The race should improve him. Eda Riley is rounding into form.

Winner—B. f. by Dr. Rice—Highlander mare (trained by C. Lind).
Went to post at 4.23. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Ball Room Belle was lucky at the start, trailed the pacemakers to the stretch where she came through next to the inner rail and outstayed Hainault after a long drive. The latter was probably the best. He forced a false pace in the early stages of the race and was not doing his best at the end under a bad rider. Ada N.

along we have supposed the rail to be the only coveted position at the post.

"Sheridan Clark does the handicapping here. What a job he has on his hands can be imagined. He naturally knows nothing of how the horses are going to be placed at the post. He must take performances only as his basis of weight adjustment. A hundred and ten pound horse on the rail should be a hundred and twenty pound horse out on the path, and vice versa. Mr. Clark is 'barking at a knot' any time he tries to make a proper weight adjustment on a field of New Orleans starters, and yet he has succeeded in getting some cracking finishes.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Thoroughbreds that cost $25,000 were sacrificed by auction at San Francisco last Tuesday for a mere song. They belonged to P. G. Lane, son of the millionaire mining man, who started a breeding farm in Nevada. He grew tired of the venture and shipped the entire lot to San Francisco, where they arrived in poor condition. They brought only $1,300. Cimenter, daughter of the mare Sabrina, that gave Water Color to the American turf, was secured by Charley Kerr for $45. Grinstead gave to the turf such good performers as Volante, Santa Ana, Santiago and Silver Cloud, yet Salonica, a Grinstead mare went to Barney Schreiber for $90. The auctioneer could only obtain $50 for a mare by Islington, sire of Kinley Mack. The young mare Midlothian, by Midlothian, out of a King Alfonso mare, brought only $115, while Playfere, by Midlothian, went for $175. These were fancy prices. Several mares in foal to Bright Phoebus, winner of the Realization, were knocked down for $10.

Ed Corrigan's good old mare Modesty, winner of the first American Derby, slipped a foal by Artillery recently.

If you want to participate in a series of the most sensational coups that have ever electrified the turf world, you must join our army of winners at once.

This is our season of harvest. We put over Philma Paxton at 60 to 1 at New Orleans about this time last year and we are at liberty to announce we have no less than four of the Philma Paxton variety in brew now.

Our clockers have timed every horse in training at New Orleans and have a most accurate line on every horse on the ground. Besides, we have never had such a number of secret sources of information at our command as now and the outlook was never better for a brilliantly successful campaign.

We Handle Your Commissions.

To obviate leaks over the wire, and to prevent anyone from thwarting our planned daily coups, we are ourselves placing, through the foremost bookmaker of the country, Mr. Sol Lichtenstein, all of the money our clients wager on our selections.

Nothing is communicated over the wires by us before the races to our subscribers. As a symbol of good faith, however, the day's selections are placed in a sealed envelope, addressed to each subscriber, and put in the mail at the New Orleans general postoffice at 1 p. m. daily. We guarantee that no horse will be played for any client, except the name of that horse has been mailed to him in an envelope bearing the New Orleans post-mark not later than 2 p. m. of the day the races are run. After the races are run New Orleans clients can learn at our New Orleans office the names of the horses Mr. Lichtenstein has been instructed to play. New York clients can learn at our New York office, and out of town clients will receive the news by telegraph, if they so order—all telegrams at cost of subscriber. In addition, we undertake to place in the hands of the editor of the New Orleans Item before the races the selections the money will be played on, and also to advertise next morning the names of the horses in the New York Daily America, which is a recognized racing authority of the country.

For the security of persons to whom our fame and financial standing are unknown, and who wish to follow us at New Orleans, the Maxim & Gay Company refers to the State National Bank of New Orleans and turfmen generally.
